

FULTON COUNTY DISTRICT COURT

ORDER SUSPENDING APRIL COURT DATES

Due to the Coronavirus pandemic, District Judge Larry Kissee has canceled all District Court dates for Salem and Mammoth Spring scheduled during the month of April.

The next court dates in Mammoth Spring for citations and criminal matters are as follows:

Arraignments/first appearances - May 8 at 10:00 A.M. Trials - June 12 at 10:00 A.M.

The next court dates in Salem for citations and criminal matters are as follows:

Arraignments/first appearances - May 13 at 1:00 P.M. Trials - May 27 at 1:00 P.M.

All civil trials in the Fulton County District Court are suspended until further notice.

These dates are subject to change pending further orders by the Arkansas Supreme Court. At the present time, the Supreme Court has suspended all in-person court appearances until April 17. This suspension could be extended to a later date depending on the severity of the spread of the virus. Please stay updated by your local media.

You can also pay most fines in advance by credit card and thereby avoid having to personally appear in court. You may call the District Court at (870) 895-4136 for more information.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 30th day of March, 2020.

---

LARRY DEAN KISSEE,
Fulton County District

Court Judge